Charlotte Samuels has it all a luxury apartment, an adoring boyfriend and a great job in advertising. But a series of unfortunate events causes Charlotte to lose everything. She decides to do something crazy - move to London, England and start life over. Why not? It's only a nine-hour flight from Chicago. Accepting a servant's job at Buckingham Palace, Charlotte meets new friends and enjoys living in the world's greatest city. She also meets the love of her life - Prince Hayden. He's even more handsome and charismatic than she had imagined, and the two fall madly in love. But even fairy tales have endings, and Charlotte wakes up to a real life nightmare. A shocking murder occurs on the grounds of Buckingham Palace, and Charlotte becomes the number-one suspect. Arrested and taken to a high-security prison in London, Charlotte awaits her trial. She realizes that the only way to win back her freedom and return home is to reveal a dirty, royal secret. But if she does, she'll rewrite English history. London Bound is a tale of fresh beginnings and painful endings old flames and new passions beautiful lies and ugly truths and the gorgeous tragedy of finding your bliss.
