Getting noticed is one way of building the percentages of raising awareness of the individuals' presence in the most convenient, pleasant and unassuming way. Using these methods will help to portray the person in a good light and thus encourage the approachability factor.

For the male gender, this is very important on all levels which include the social and working environment.

Most women today are busy with their own agendas and often find it quite annoying when a man is unable to be clear in his intentions, therefore a male who is capable of speaking his mind clearly and concisely is a welcomed respite indeed !

The fast pace of today's world leaves little time and energy for both the male and female gender to indulge in and explore each other's feelings, needs and wants.
