PARDON ME WHILE I CLOSE THE DOOR Marjan Sierhuis

We often talk of life as a journey. Many writers use walking as a motif for exploring the journey of life. Indeed, my walk frames my reflections on a crucial part of my life journey. My hope is that my story will show you that we all have the strength to accept the loss of those we love, whether it be a parent, sibling, child, or a relationship. And for some of us the journey may be a long one. Sometimes, grieving and "getting over" loss takes longer than we expected, but we do move on. I know because I did. So, on July 7, 2014, I took my walk.
