Angelica and Henry Barrett, the Earl of Linfast, have been married for two years, since a particularly beneficial arrangement was made by their families. Their lives have fallen into a routine in which love does not play a part. When Angelica has a reckless moment and puts her life in danger, she breaks their mundane daily routine, and Henry is there to save her. But what were his motivations, when he has rarely ever showed her affection before? An uncovered secret from his past holds back all his emotion and fondness. She is desperate to know what haunts him, and her desire only grows. At her discovery of the truth, will passion or fury be unlocked and released into their relationship? This is a story of passionate secrets and repressed desire, the rebuilding of a relationship which has languished in the shadows of a cold estate.
