Trapped in Time-Extinction Saxon Andrew

From the International Bestselling Author Saxon Andrew comes the final book in the Tapped in Time Series, Extinction. The Community has survived multiple attacks from the Destroyers and now Andy is planning a surprise attack against their city. The Destroyers are preparing defenses against the coming invasion and they've determined that their enemy is capable of flying. The new defenses will be devastating.

A suicide mission is sent to scout the Destroyers and to free a slave. Andy will discover that the forces arrayed against him are formidable and the prospects of success are not looking good. He knows the enemy coming from space will arrive soon and he suspects they will come with the arrival of the asteroid that will devastate the planet.

Before he can turn his attention to the coming aliens, the Destroyers must be handled. Time is running out and Earth is facing a major extinction and whoever wins may end up a loser. Ultimately, the real danger to the surviving humans will be the species that originally took humans back in time. The Time Takers have an agenda and they will accept nothing less than destruction of the coming aliens and every living human. The action is non-stop in this final book of the series.

Excerpt: Trapped in Time-Extinction

. He ran back to her and grabbed her hand. He pulled her over to the wall and whispered, "Can you climb the wall?"

"Not without getting splinters in my hands."

Tyler followed Olivia up the wall and grabbed her hand. He pulled her forward and began jogging on top of the wall toward the north. Olivia saw the large backpack the man was carrying and wondered what was in it. She saw Destroyer Warriors on the ground below them but they didn't look up. The uniform she wore had soles built into the feet. The soles were soft and they ran without making any noise. They covered a quarter of a mile when an almighty roar suddenly deafened Tyler.

He stopped running, went to a knee, and pulled his red blaster. He looked over the wall and saw the T-Rex running toward them from the south. "I'm going to kill that lizard!" Olivia went a knee as well and her heart went into her throat as the giant carnivore was running toward them through the brush next to the wall. It was going to be on them in moments. Tyler raised the beam gun and aimed at the Rex but it didn't pause as it ran past them. It did look in their direction briefly, but that was all. Tyler lowered the blaster and shook his head. It was at that moment that he was shaken by a roar that shook the wall they were kneeling on. Tyler jerked his head back to the south and was stunned by what he saw. He whipped the whistle out of his shirt and blew it.

The Spinosaurus didn't even pause as it continued moving toward them. "Oh Crap!"

Olivia looked at Tyler, "What?!"

"This one is a rogue and doesn't recognize the whistle! Run!" Tyler grabbed her hand and pulled her. The roar was deafening and the giant was moving quickly toward them. It wasn't as fast as the T-Rex but it wasn't slow. Its smooth gait was eating up ground and it was going to be on them in moments. Tyler came to a sudden stop and grabbed Olivia, preventing her from falling. Destroyer Warriors were scrambling up on the wall and running toward them. Tyler looked back toward the oncoming giant and saw more warriors were climbing the wall to the south. He shook his head and pulled Olivia over to the edge of the wall. "Climb over the edge and drop to the ground." Olivia looked at the approaching Spinosaurus and started shaking her head. Tyler grabbed her chin and forced her to look at him, "You agreed, no hesitation!" Tyler pulled her over the edge and he scrambled down to the ground. She tried to follow him but lost her grip halfway down. She fell back but Tyler caught her before she hit the ground. He grabbed her hand and started running along the wall.
