Arabelle's Shadows Fleur Gaskin

A raw tale of a beautiful girl who sometimes wishes she was dead.

Arabelle is a fashion model who has worked in many exotic places. Her adventures take her to Bangkok where she starts to date a wealthy Thai socialite. She has gorgeous friends from all over the world, gets to party at the hottest clubs, and attracts attention with every step.

But the fashion industry isn't as glamorous as it appears; there are too many models in Bangkok, Arabelle is broke, and the people she meets aren't what they seem.

Slowly the Shadows creep back into Arabelle's thoughts, bringing with them feelings of hopelessness and despair. The vile Shadows know that Arabelle is repressing her past and, if she's not careful, they'll use it to destroy her.

Based on a true story, this coming-of-age novel sheds light on the gritty and devastating reality of depression.

Not for the faint of heart.
