Are you looking for a great children's book story that is about adventure, teaches kids an important life lesson and has beautiful pictures that you will love just as much as your child does? You have found that right here with Rocky's New Friend – Blade the Shark!

Rocky was a handsome young angelfish that lived in the Pacific Ocean. He and his best friend Gaga loved to play in the corals and reefs in the warm salty water. They always had fun until one day Rocky met a new friend. Rocky's new friend was a shark named Blade. Blade was different than any of Rocky's other friends. Blade was much bigger, and swam in the deep, darker waters where there were many dangers. Rocky thought it was great to have a new friend that was so cool.

But can an angelfish and a shark really become best friends? Rocky's parents are not happy his new friend is a shark, and they warn Rocky not to be friends with Blade. Find out what happens to Rocky when he ventures into the dangerous dark waters following his new friend. What dangers are lurking there? Will Blade be a good friend and protect Rocky? Find out more in this exciting adventure!

The story is intriguing, and the colorful illustrations come to life. The book has 20+ beautiful illustrations. You can see that in the book preview. Also you can see trailer video for the book. This book is suitable for 3-8 years old. It's short enough as a kids book for ages 3-5, yet it's also long enough as a kids book for ages 6-8.
