The pain from her breakup with her high school boyfriend, Luke, is almost unbearable for Mabel. The fact that Luke simply has a sudden change of heart about their relationship hurts her the most. For a long period, Mabel lives a life full of regret, hatred, and sorrow. Only around her supportive friends could she sometimes temporarily forget her overwhelming emotions and traumatic past; whenever she is alone, memories of Luke would play in her mind, shattering her recuperating heart to pieces all over again. Her harsh experiences at love hold Mabel back from loving again. Unknown to her, another man would soon enter her life. But will it be to completely heal her heart? Will history repeat itself? Or worse?
