From New York Times best-selling author, Eve Carter, comes the final book to the Tempted Series that started with Pure Temptation.

A week has passed since fight promoter Bruno Costello took off with the nine year-old daughter of MMA fighter Luke Romero and the FBI have no clue where to look. To make matters worse, the promise of Luke getting back his professional license has fallen through. When he's offered a deal, he takes it, knowing it's the best chance he has to find his daughter before it's too late.

Luke's girlfriend, Daniella Carrington, has her own issues to deal with. She's been called back to Summerville to testify against her friend's abusive ex. There's only one problem; Dani is known to the Summerville police as Hanna and taking the stand under oath could land her in jail.

Add in a handsome stranger relentlessly pursuing Dani and nothing is certain. Will Dani and Luke be able to make things right or will they lose everything, including each other?
