"The Cricket on the Hearth

A Fairy Tale of Home" by Charles Dickens Retold in simplified English by Neil McFarlane.

Suitable for intermediate-level EFL students and younger readers.

A mysterious old man comes to visit John Peerybingle and his wife Dot. Who is he? And will his presence bring good or evil?

"The Cricket on the Hearth", written in 1845, is one of Dickens' Christmas Books, and was for many years more popular than its more famous cousin, "A Christmas Carol".

Dickens' language and writing style, particularly the long, clause-packed sentences, can be difficult for younger readers and EFL students. This edition of "Cricket on the Hearth" will enable such readers to enjoy a truly great writer and a wonderfully entertaining story.

This version simplifies Dickens' English but keeps his personal style of writing - the voice is still very much Dickens' own, but made easier to read for a modern reader.

A fantastic story by one of Britain's greatest writers.
