Megan Stallings has hit the road to escape the heartbreak one man brought into her life, only to land in the arms of another.

Blue-eyed rancher Chad Winslow has a penchant for rescuing damsels in distress, especially spunky, independent ones with big brown eyes.

Megan's stranded by the roadside when Chad rides to the rescue. He's immediately smitten, but Megan has more important things to worry about. Chad takes her to his family's truck stop, where his parents welcome her like a long-lost daughter.

As the truck stop diner's newest waitress, Megan settles in nicely, only to find herself more attracted to her irrepressible savior with each passing day. Just as she's about to give in to her heart's urging, fate steps in with today's blue plate special--heartbreak topped with a heavy dollop of deceit. Chad is married!

Gravel flies and rubber burns when Megan hits the road again, with Chad in hot pursuit. Their road to happily ever after is full of potholes and detours, but could it be worth the trip?
