Dylan: Fianna Fáil: Soldiers of Destiny (Volume 2) S. Kline

Contains graphic sex, drug use, violence, and adult situations. Not recommended for anyone under 18. This is a continuation series picking up from the end of book one. "This is what life is all about. This is the place where all of our troubles are put to rest. This is my family. It's not traditional, but it's mine, and I will do everything in my power to protect what's mine. Down to my last breath." Dylan Trent is more than just the main drug dealer for the organization known as Fianna Fail. He is also Troy Donovan's childhood best friend. Nine months after Marcus's betrayal, and Callie is still in hiding. The whole of the organization is on the hunt for revenge. But what happens when a broken girl suffering abuse at the hands of her drug addicted mother and step-father entwines herself in Dylan's world? Meet Raven Colt. One girl who holds too many secrets for her eighteen years of age. As their world collides will they rise above, or shatter under the pressure? Find out in book 2 of the Fianna Fail series.
