A Paranormal Thriller about a FBI Conspiracy

Special Abilities, FBI, Conspiracy, Mystery Thriller & Love Triangle

Growing up, Hannah Burkewood was always different from the other children. She grew up in a loving adopted family and had a sister who was the only one who knew about her secret. The secret that she keeps from others.

After her college graduation she and her boyfriend Jasper applied for FBI and got through for training at Quantico. Hannah balanced her life perfectly hiding her abilities and getting through the training unnoticed. She always wanted to be a cop as her parents were murdered and the cops were late at the scene, and she felt that she can make a difference by being a good cop. And given the abilities she had it would be difficult, at least that's what she thought.

Jasper and Hannah, both graduated from the training and were posted together in New York in the Anti-Terrorist Unit.

After few months of rookie work, Hannah finally got a call in to a terrorist situation in a mall where a guy was about to blow up a chemical bomb. She tackled the perpetrator and apprehended him back to the FBI Office, where she and her colleagues questioned him for leads.

Brandon Reilly, was charged with terrorist activities by the FBI, he had said nothing in the interrogation but Hannah had a hunch that he was innocent. There is some connection between Hannah and Reilly that she wasn't able to figure it out. But she investigates the case further against opposition from her peers and Jasper.

The things that are revealed in Hannah's Quest for truth is what this series is all about.

Does Hannah find the Truth?

Is Reilly really innocent?

Is there any conspiracy inside the FBI?

Does Jasper assist Hannah in her quest?
