Summary: Spark Joy: An Illustrated Master Class on the Art of Organizing and Tidying | Review & Highlights - NOT ORIGINAL BOOK but includes OUR OWN Illustrations

Spark Joy is a book that breaks down the massive difference between cleaning and tidying. To tidy is to rid yourself of any objects that do not spark joy.

Clothing, kitchen supplies, cords, and any other item in your home must be sorted through to find the joyful and useful. This will help alleviate many tensions in your life and make your home, your dream home.

Many people spend their lives cleaning up because they do not know how to tidy and discard unneeded or unwanted objects.

Marie Kondo challenges the precepts of clutter and forces the reader to dig deep in deciding the actual need of an object. After you put the principles of this book into your daily life you will find yourself in a clutter and stress-free world.
