Adeline Hensley is a girl on the run. On the run from her sleazy ex, her old life, and desperately running from the fear-riddled person she has become. Her quest for a way out lands her straight into harm's way, and straight into the arms of a mysterious man who saves her and steals her heart all at the same time.

Jay Macintyre, tired of the overwhelming violence of war, decides to make the switch from Military man to Private Eye. His army background and his supernatural werebear abilities make him one of the best Private Investigators in the city. Little does he know that the missing woman he was hired to find is hiding more secrets than he could ever guess.

Jay ends up protecting the woman he was meant to hunt down, at the same time realizing that not all is what it seems. He finally found the girl, but will he lose his heart in the process?
