Tender Hearts Gail R. Delaney

First comes love, then comes marriage, then comes the baby in the baby carriage...

For Billy Culver and Erin Griffin, first came three amazing days and nights in Hawaii before Erin slips away in the early hours of the morning. She made the mistake of listening to the little, annoying voice in her head that insisted she could never be anything to Billy but a vacation distraction.

Until she has to accept he is so much more.

Billy couldn't get Erin out of his head, and tried for two months to find her before she shows up out of the blue at his construction site, just as beautiful as she had been under the Hawaiian sun. Perhaps even more beautiful, and she still pulls at him like no woman ever has.

"I'm pregnant..."

What will it take for Billy and Erin to take a chance and admit their love? Then tragedy strikes and they have to find strength in each other... for the love of their child.
