Within the covers of Volume II in this powerful series, The Least of These, you will be encouraged and exhorted to abandon the narcissistic individualism of our society and embrace the restorative and uplifting compassion of the Lord through a Gospel-centered message of loving one another, serving one another, exhorting one another, and forbearing one another. Each message will assure you of a God that laughs with you, cries with you, walks with you, and talks with you until your original honor and glory (as the crown jewel of His creation) is recovered and restored. Some of you have lost jobs, but the Lord's compassion is going to restore you with another job. Some of you have had opportunities stolen and doors closed, but the Lord's compassion is going to restore those opportunities and open new and greater doors. Some of you have had significant financial losses in the past, but the Lord's compassion is going to restore those finances. Some of you have suffered from depression and disappointment for many years, but the Lord is going to restore your joy and peace of mind. No matter your condition or state in life, The Least of These will assure that there is no place where the Grace, Favor, and Love of God cannot find you!
