My Personal Journey To Being A Slave Tracy Potter

I decided to write this book after being asked many times what it means to be a slave, how did I find my Master, how did I know I was meant to be a slave and the ever popular, "How did you know it was right for you?" Some of the entries are in third person and others in first person writing. The reason for third person speech at the time was to remind me that although I am a person first and foremost, that I was the slave in the relationship.
