Forced to conceal her identity and whereabouts when she was fifteen after an assassination attempt on her father's life, Kaitie resumes an "average" life incognito, even keeping her identity as a princess of a small European principality a secret from her best friend.

But when her father, the Prince, asks her to return home at the cusp of her thirtieth birthday to prepare for her role as heir to the throne, Kaitie faces a dilemma. She enjoys life as an "ordinary citizen," but also wishes to fulfill her royal duty.

When her cover is blown, Kaitie discovers protecting her identity isn't the only thing she has to face as a family secret is revealed that might destroy her chance at happiness and true love.
