Memorias de una Zorra (Spanish Edition) (Historica (Ediciones B)) Francesca Petrizzo

Una nave frente a las costas griegas. A bordo, una mujer trata de distinguir el perfil del Peloponeso en la luz incierta del crepúsculo. Es Helena de Troya, devuelta a su patria por su marido, Menelao, después de la destrucción de la orgullosa ciudad. Al viento y a las olas, ella confía la propia historia. Y su voz, melancólica y vibrante, nos habla de una criatura sedienta de amor, llena de pasión y sensualidad, pero obligada a casarse con un hombre al que no había elegido. Una decisión fatal, de la que nacieron lutos y tragedias, porque Helena buscara entre otros brazos aquello que le ha sido negado. Francesca Petrizzo despoja a su protagonista del halo legendario, le da carne y alma. La figura de Helena irrumpe en el relato con la fuerza, la rabia y la dulzura de un personaje auténtico, arquetipo de todas las mujeres que a través de los tiempos han opuesto las razones del corazón a las del poder. Sostenido por una escritura lírica y musical y, por momentos, hipnótica, este es el sorprendente debut literario de una jovencísima escritora. Vibrante, conmovedora y poética, esta novela se inscribe en la tradición de obras tan inolvidables como Memorias de Adriano. / On board a ship off the Greek coast, a woman tries to make out the outline of the Peloponnese in the dim light of dusk. It is Helen of Troy, returned to her homeland by her husband, Menelaus, after the destruction of the proud city. To the wind and waves, she tells her story.
