1197 A.D. - Smarting from the loss of his betrothed, Sir Keller de Poyer has learned not to trust women. A bear of a man with a brilliant mind, Keller is socially awkward but an accomplished knight. He is so accomplished in fact that his liege, William Marshal, gifts the man with lands in Wales for his meritorious service. But there is a catch - in order to secure the lands and titles, he must marry the Welsh heiress. And so begins the journey into the Netherworld - a castle with a dark reputation and an heiress who hides her own terrible secrets. Death lives at Nether and Keller is caught in the maelstrom. Can he save his new wife from danger and betrayal before it's too late?

Hazel Mercado:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Netherworld can make you sense more interested to read.
