Rafe Flanigan is disowned after a fight with his overbearing grandfather and storms away from his family's Montana ranch, leaving behind his girlfriend Angelina Howard. Estranged from his family, Rafe settles in Seeker's Island off the coast of Florida, where he runs a successful riding stable.

Attorney Angel Howard must obtain Rafe's signature on documents for his deceased grandfather's estate, or the Flanigan family will lose the ranch. Receiving no response to letters, she flies to Seeker's Island to confront him. Rafe stubbornly refuses to discuss the paperwork, and Angel won't leave until he does.

As the two clash, their attraction is as strong as ever. But can they get past old pain to rekindle their romance and save the ranch?
