Wars and Rumors of Wars: Episode Three (Blackmount Book 1) M. G. Norris

There's a danger in being noticed by powers greater than ourselves. Nobody knows that better than one tiny Orcish kingdom and the spy that's made her home there. Bigger wheels are turning, unbeknownst to folk at Blackmount, and unless they get ahead of things - and quickly - well... Things In Power have a way of making sure they stay that way, and certain halfbreeds have become an inconvenience that those larger can't ignore.

Presented in three parts for Kindle episodic release, Wars and Rumors of Wars - Episode 3 concludes the story that began when one halfbreed smelled fire in the treetops and ran toward it rather than away. It's a scramble to unite the overlooked, as powers both mortal and divine decide enough has been enough.

Fans of Bradbury, Adams, Clarke and Pratchett will find themselves right at home in this introspective political thriller cleverly disguised as epic fantasy.
