Prayer: Dear God,

Are you doing anything Friday night?

Turns out he is. He's being fabulous. That's right, God like his men fabulous. If you thought that God hated fags, that's because you read it wrong. God hates figs. But then, who doesn't?

Benjamin David spent most of his life in various forms reparative therapy struggling to be straight. He begged God to help, but God was having none of it. God's response was quite simple: Before he would even consider it, he needed help with a redecorating project, and then he wanted to go shoe shopping; after that, a wine tasting, and then they were going to see a play.

God loves being the fag stag and Benjamin loves being his fag. Theirs is a fabulous relationship, full of dysfunction and high drama. Once God came to Ben in a white wine cream sauce. He was aiming for a dream, but he was off by one letter. One day Ben was Knock Knock Knocking on Heaven's Door, when all of a sudden God's porch light turned off, the curtains closed over the windows, and all the lights in Heaven went dark...

Real subtle God!

This is God in all his glory: a God who loves Monty Python, tequila, and chasing gorgeous men.
