This is a stand-alone western romance book, Part 3 of the Forever Cowboys series, with many of the same characters found in the first two books. Maeve Brady leaves her busy career as a midwife in New York City to go to the mountains of Wyoming. Widowed when she was in her early twenties, Maeve has never found another man who measures up to the love she had....and lost. Joe Martin is a cowboy rancher, a widower who lost his wife at a young age. Like Maeve, nobody else has been able to take his late spouse's place. But when Maeve and Joe meet, the chemistry is off the charts between them. Can it be that their hearts and bodies know something their minds haven't realized yet?
