A Weekend Getaway Karen Lenfestey

Bethany Morris always puts everyone else's needs first. That's why when she got pregnant in college, she shouldered the burden alone. She had the baby in secret and placed it for adoption. Sixteen years later, she's patiently waiting for her live-in boyfriend to propose and wondering if she's missed her one chance at motherhood. Life gets complicated when she runs into the baby's father and realizes the chemistry's still there. At first, Bethany and Parker relive the good, old days, but then he reveals that he has the same disease that took his father's life. Does Bethany owe it to Parker to tell him that he has a child? Should she track down the daughter she's never known just to give her bad news? Risking the comfortable life she's built for herself, Bethany embarks on a cross-country road trip to face her past and find the daughter she never forgot.
