26 letter units (383 pages)

Hands-on activities for teaching letter recognition and pre-reading skills with detailed teacher instructions and patterns

A puppet mascot and student reward for each letter

Science, math, art, social studies, and book making activities

Worksheets with varying ability levels to practice writing skills, letter formation, letter recognition, and sounds

Patterns, picture cards, bingo cards, songs, and games

Review activities after every fourth letter

A Suggested Book List for each letter (age appropriate literature to supplement the letter unit)

This book contains everything you need to teach preschoolers and kindergartners the alphabet and pre-reading skills. The teacher tested ideas and activities were designed with young children in mind and are geared to their interests and abilities. They use a wide variety of teaching styles and methods, are fun and creative, and keep the students' interest and attention. A puppet mascot is suggested to help introduce and teach each letter. The puppet's name begins with the unit's letter helping children remember and learn the letter and its sound. Puppets, songs, games, and rewards keep the children's interest and make learning fun! For added convenience patterns/reproducibles relating to the activities are also included making the activities easy to use and prepare. There are also review activities after every fourth letter that help students retain and review what they have learned. So dive right in and get started on a great adventure through the alphabet!
