Hebrews Through New Eyes: Christ and His Rivals Douglas Wilson

Though often considered one of the more difficult and arcane of the New Testament books, Hebrews is a treasury of robust New Covenant teaching with roots going all the way down into the Pentateuch. In this commentary, Doug Wilson provides a pastoral tour of the book of Hebrews, stopping to point out and contextualize every Old Covenant reference along the way, all the while demonstrating Jesus' supremacy over anyone or anything that would compete for His glory. Written in a conversational style, with the thoughtful Christian in mind, Hebrews Through New Eyes is a handy guide for your Bible study group, Sunday School class or personal Bible reading
