Promises Casey Curry

When Pamela Sloane meets a young Midshipman at the United States Naval Academy, she embarks on a thirty year journey of desire, death, determination and deliverance. This thought-provoking story promises unprecedented access into the otherwise covert and conservative world of military intrigue, hidden desires and secrets, begging to be revealed. Pamela Sloane and Ella Jean Washington are sisters. They are as different as night and day. While they don't share the same last name, their lives are intricately interwoven. Amid a dangerous breach of government security and fragile family alliances, Pamela Sloane and her husband, Randolph, must do everything in their power to expose military espionage, keep their family together and catch a killer.
