Comments From Other Readers

"I love anything dealing with England. In my studies on the country, the name Winston Churchill is legendary. While I was looking for some quick information on him to do a report, I came across this book. I loved that not only did I get information on his life; I also got information about some of his inspirational words. It wasn't too heavy of a book, as some biographies will take a while to go through, but gave me a start in the direction I needed to head in with my report. Really an excellent book!" Amber – Massachusetts (US)

"Winston Churchill has to be without compare, the major statesman in the 20th century. This book provides a wonderful review of his charismatic career and his historic speeches, particularly during the Second World War where his words may have perhaps changed a nation. He was truly an inspiration to all that have read his words. He makes me immensely proud to be British." David – Manchester (UK)
