Lancelot Bottomley The Reluctant Knight Terrence J Goodchild

The story of Lancelot Bottomley is based on the life of a child named Lancelot. Because his mother had a crush on Richard Gere in the film the first Knight. It is a theme on king Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table but put into a modern idiom. Through Lancelot's own eyes and how he copes with puberty and hormones plus his name through primary school to Secondary school. The taunts and bullies and how he overcomes adversity to his teenage years and onto college. Through many encounters he manages to become a knight unknown to himself. In his teenage years while doing his paper round he foils a robbery at the local corner shop owned by mister Patel where he meets his daughter Yasmin, who has been promised in an arranged marriage and has to help her. There are many times he becomes a hero and many time he falls on his face.
