How To Teach Piano Keyboard & Organ Lessons To Kids & Adults

Do you play the piano?, do you want to teach piano?, now is your chance. My name is Michael Shaw, I've been teaching piano, electronic keyboard and electric organ for over thirty years and this book will show you how to get started teaching piano lessons. Whether you want a career in teaching or you just want to make some extra cash, this book will show you how.

Everything in this book is based on my own personal experiences, it's tried, tested and it works. This is not a musical education book, it is assumed that the reader can play the piano, keyboard or organ, this book explains the framework around which you will teach and covers topics such as "where to teach" "how much to charge" and "how to get lots of students". While this book is aimed at piano, keyboard and organ players, guitarist and drummers will also benefit from this book. I have taught students from ages 4 to 80 years old, many of those are now making a living through their music as entertainers, composers and music teachers.

You Can Learn The Following From This Book:

- Chapter 1: Introduction
- Chapter 2: Essential Requirement to Teach
- Chapter 3: Where to Teach
 - - Teaching at Home
 - - Mobile Teaching
 - - Teaching in a Music Shop
- Chapter 4: Half Hour or Hour Lessons and How Much to Charge
- Chapter 5: The Age Group Of Your Students
- Chapter 6: How To Find New Students
- Chapter 7: Take Action

Do you want to teach? This is the book you have been waiting for, nothing technical here, just straight talking methods that work, that have worked for me for over 30 years. Like chapter 7 says, take action now.
