Royal Pain (Mark of the Royals Book 1) Lavinia Bolog

Three alluring identical vampire princes are searching for a human girl to one day rule their kingdom, but little did they know that stubborn and passionate Deva was not like the rest of the girls, dreaming to be queen.

Instead of falling for the brothers' charms and striving for their attention like most of the lovestruck potential queens, Deva does everything she can to get on their bad side so that they may send her home. For some reason everything she tries on them doesn't seem to work.

Having the comfort of her childhood friend, Julia, who was also taken to be a potential queen, Deva manages to sustain her sanity with humorous, yet destructive, distractions. That is until the three princes unknowingly begin to peel back the defensive layers she worked so hard to keep up.

Love was something she wished to avoid, but she wasn't sure she could.

Secrets will arise, and betrayal will be inevitable. Deva will be pulled and twisted into the vampire world until she is left crying for home and a way out.
