Six Weeks: The Confessions of a Love Slave Lorel Simon

The confessions of a love slave: The author allows herself to be confined for six weeks in a French training house for sex slaves in order to do research for a PhD thesis. She inadvertently discovers her own predilection for rough sex and describes the anguish of her resulting love affair. Included are the thesis notes from her research. She describes the practices of domination and submission, how the slaves are recruited and trained, the motives of the masters who use them, the hopes and goals of the women confined there...and what happens to herself afterwards.
