Brent is an eighteen year old boy who thinks his life can't possibly get any worse. So in a moment of desperation, he decides he wants out. He wants a new life, a chance to start over. That's what prompted him to perform a spell that would not only take his memories, but threaten to take much more. Soul Searching is about just that. Brent is searching for the answers that so many of us have about growing up, falling in love, and most importantly, learning to love yourself. This is a drama, a love story, and a magical mystery but mostly, it's a story about family, and what it means to have one.
