This calendar is a compilation of daily status updates from my social media pages. The following is my explanation of their origins: I am often asked if my status updates are original, where they 'come from.' Here's the secret answer:

Every morning I wake up, way too early, and immediately panic. I'm a fearful worrier. I start chatting with God. I tell him that I am scared, that someone doesn't like me, that this thing or that aspect of life is stinkily unfair. Then

I thank him for the good things, the beauty and blessings of life and I recount them. I think of what He might say to me if I could hear him better when He talks. And THOSE ARE THE WORDS I use as my status update. It's really the same words every day just said from a different angle. You're not alone. You're here for a reason. Buck up, little doggie. You are never forgotten. Don't forget others. That's the answer.
