Between the Lines Sarah E. Schwersenska

Tate Publishing is the fastest growing publishing company in the country, and it is run by none other than the sexy ice queen herself, Alexandra Tate. She started the company over ten years ago on nickels and dimes when her father refused to get his work published. After his death, she made sure his work went to the top, right along with her company. Alexandra was also an avid reader, her favorite author being the erotica novelist Sterling Morris. Miss Tate spent many nights alone with his books, always ending up in glorious nights of self-gratification. When Sterling's publishing company sells out, Alexandra vows to do whatever it takes to get Mr. Morris into her company...and into her bed. This is surely a story to keep readers interested as it takes you on a ride through the glamorous lifestyle of the rich and famous, the devious and ruthless. Get a taste of the sex, money and power that come along with being at the top.
