My name is Sarah Reynolds, and I'm a cheating wife.

Of course, if you've read my stories, you already know that (and if you haven't, look'm up – just search for Confessions of a Cheating Wife by Becky Cochran, that's my pen name. You can see my first four stories collected together in Confessions Of A Cheating Wife: Taken By A Stranger:

Please don't think too badly of me, I don't know that it's my fault. Almost all of my adult life I've been driven, some unseen force inside me, pushing me to seek out new sensual thrills, to find lovers who can satisfy me in all-new ways. It's this intense, insatiable craving, and I'm not sure it can be stopped.

Not that I would want to.

See, I'm absolutely addicted to romance, to that sensual, physical intimacy that comes only when you're in another's arms, absolutely opening yourself to him, while he's doing the same to you.

Of course, I've been known to just seek some cheap, maybe even dangerous, thrills, hooking up with all sorts of men from various online dating sites.

A while back someone asked me why I did this, why wasn't I satisfied with simply being the good little wife, the woman of leisure my husband's job as a surgeon affords me.

I don't know, but the more I thought about it, the more I wondered if a few events early in my life made me who I am. I became intimate with a man for the first time when I was 19, and I suppose, maybe, what makes it a little different, and certainly more alarming to those who hear the story, is that he was an older man, my youth pastor, the man in charge of overseeing the spiritual and, to a degree, the physical well-being of his young charges. When I was 19 we became involved, secretly, and though he was a spiritual man, he was also the most carnal, the most lustful, the wickedest man I've ever known, and the things he did...well...let's just say it was intense, it was torrid, it was naughty and I've never been the same since.

And today, I'm sharing that shocking little tale with you...just click and read...
