A Story of Self in 200 Pages Max.: A post-modernistic distanced autobiography Raphaël Villatte

A Story of Self explores in a fictionalized and humorous way the latest thoughts about the Self, the way we see ourselves and the way it makes us who we are. It looks like an autobiography, but it keeps dancing on the verge of complete fiction.

A Story of Self is about the writer, about me and me as a writer. It answers all questions you may ask yourself about myself. Since I'm no different from you, it'll answer about yourself too.

You like novels? This book is made for you. You don't like them? This book is made for you. You like the french? This book is made for you. You hate them? This book is made for you. You like self-fiction? This book is made for you. You couldn't care less? This book is made for you. You know me already? This book is made for you. You don't? This book is made for you. You want to know about yourself? This book is made for you. You sure don't? This book is made for you. You want a book that is made for you? This book is made for you.
